

parkview COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

VICE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Jeffrey Lucente

Have you noticed that the sky is a little lighter when you wake up in the morning? And if you're lucky, it might even still be up when you're on your way home from work. We are getting approximately four minutes of additional sunlight every day, leading to six more hours of daylight at the end of April compared to the beginning of February. The sun not only provides us with Vitamin D; it seems to give everyone a little bit more energy and puts all of us in a better mood. So get outside and soak up some of the warm rays! Parkview Community League (PVCL) will be hosting our annual spring clean-up event in May. Watch our website for details, or "like" the Parkview Community League Facebook page to receive updates on all our community events.

For many kids in our community, spring means outdoor soccer. Registration for kids between 3 and 17 years old can be done either online at www.emsasoccerportal.com, in person at the PVCL Hall on Thursday, March 2nd and Saturday, March 4th, or at the Double Tree by Hilton (16615 - 109 Ave) on Thursday, March 9th. See our website www.pvcl.ca/programs-sports/outdoor-soccer for more details.

At the end of January, over 40 volunteers from our community worked a casino that will put approximately $80,000 in our coffers. On behalf of all Parkview residents, I would like to extend a huge thank-you to all of you who donated several hours of your time, some of which were in the wee hours of the morning. Special thanks to Melanie Lee, who serves on PVCL's board of directors, coordinates the casino every couple of years, and volunteers as the General Manager for the first and last shifts of the casino. Funds from the casino primarily go toward maintenance and upgrades to our facility, but also support our programs and services, such printing of this quarterly newsletter.

Hall rentals have historically been another significant source of revenue for PVCL. Managing these rentals (and the renters) is no small task, involving responding to countless email inquiries, negotiating contracts, maintaining a booking calendar and associated records, collecting and tracking payment, monitoring events, responding to issues (sometimes in the middle of the night), and providing periodic reports to the board of directors. For the past five years, Debbie Braun provided these services on contract to PVCL. During this time, total annual rental revenue nearly doubled! On top of that, Debbie volunteered scores of hours to community events (e.g. Food Truck Night coordinator) and operations (e.g. webmaster). I would like to take this opportunity to thank Debbie for her outstanding contributions, and wish her all the best as she seeks out new adventures with her husband, Ed (also a long-time volunteer board member with PVCL). Cheers to both of you!

At the beginning of February, Tracey Kushniruk, who many of you already know as our resident caretaker, took over as PVCL's rental agent. We believe that combining the caretaker and rental agent roles will create synergies and efficiencies in the care and running of our facility. At this time of transition, the board felt it was an opportune time to review our approach to facility rentals against our mission as a community league. While we want to optimize the revenue from rentals, we also want to provide better accessibility and more events for community members. As such, a committee has been formed to review our facility rental objectives, policies, guidelines, procedures, and pricing. If you would like to provide your thoughts or ideas on this or any other topic, I welcome your emails at vicepresident@pvcl.ca.

CHRISTMAS CRAFT AND BAKE SALE

DISHES UP GOOD FEELINGS

Louise Clarke

The Parkview Christmas Craft & Bake Sale held last November was the perfect setting for fellowship and fun. If we measure its success in smiles and hugs and laughter, we have innumerable reasons to celebrate. We had a fantastic turnout for this festive affair and the mood quickly sparked a bright start to the holiday season.

Lucky for me, my day opened with a VERY big hug for my role in the event. It was a poignant reaffirmation that traditions and events that bring us together as a community are important for the soul. Thank you, Charlie, for sharing your joy!

Admittedly not much changes from year to year with this annual event. The exception would be seeing the first-timers who got the word to wake up and smell the perogies. We hope that you enjoyed the day and will come again to experience all that the day serves up.

We followed our usual course and watched the homemade pies float out the door and the bake table was laden with sweet treats courtesy of the many baking elves—we hope you enjoyed every tasty morsel! The Ukrainian lunch is a mainstay that we just don't want to mess with. The various free activity stations for the children were busy for most of the day and the horse-drawn wagon rides enjoyed a steady stream of eager riders. Most importantly, Santa Claus made the time for his Parkview appearance amid his busy schedule. Hopefully everyone got what they wished for.

Thanks to all of you who participate in your own way to contribute to our long-running success. We appreciate the businesses, patrons, and volunteers who continue in their support to make the Christmas Craft & Bake Sale day a great one for all to enjoy. Many thanks once again to the following longstanding sponsors: Andy's IGA for icing and countless miscellaneous supplies; Ajay from Signature Place Second Cup for coffee and supplies; CHEEMO for the donation of perogies; and the Brenneis sisters for making the cabbage rolls and cornmeal and who continue to honour their sister, Valerie Bright, by returning to help out every year.

Thank you to the vendors who keep bringing it so that our patrons have many exciting gifts to peruse; and thank you to all of you shoppers who keep the vendors clamouring to get come back.

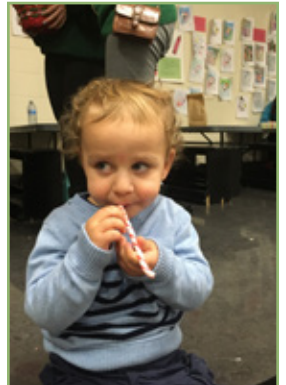

We also have the fabulous support of Tracey Kushniruk and Deb and Ed Braun who put in extra hours for event preparation and clean-up. And there is endless gratitude for the army of volunteers who baked (and baked), rolled, bagged, decorated, scooped, schlepped, cleaned, wiped, you name it! We also thank the youth volunteers for bringing their enthusiasm and supervising the children's activities so that parents can relax while kids have fun.

A successful event has many components and another critical one is the organizing committee. Thank you to the amazing ladies who worked behind the scenes to ensure everything was in place. Thanks Andrea Archimowitz for coordinating the concession and baking bee; Barb Le Mare for coordinating the vendors; Jody Nickerson for coordinating the children's activities and gave an extra helping hand where needed; Susan Pasemko for coordinating the homemade pies and additional baking; and, Daphne Simkin for recruiting and overseeing our volunteers. Thanks also to their spouses and families for supporting these ladies in their roles.

Thank you once again to everyone who takes part in the Christmas Craft & Bake Sale as a helper or a shopper. It's an extra special day for an extraordinary community. Be sure to SAVE THE DATE for the next one – November 18, 2017. No membership required. FREE admission with a smile or hug!

A JOYFUL PATH,

SPIRITUAL CURRICULUM FOR YOUNG HEARTS AND MINDS

Are you looking for a way to re-enforce values you are teaching your children in a community-minded environment? The St. Andrew's United Church (SAUC) Children's Program may be what you are looking for! The program focuses on teaching children interdependence, self-awareness, respect for nature, stillness, forgiveness, prayer, meditation and integrity.

Some of the activities include crafts, music (including Christmas concert), maintaining a winter birdfeeder, gardening, kid yoga, drum circle, family movie night, building inter-generational relationships and age-appropriate activities to help others who are less fortunate.

Using the Bible and other wisdom stories, A Joyful Path helps children learn how to follow the path of Jesus, other teachers, and real life heroes in today's world.

The Children's Program runs Sunday mornings at 10AM for approximately one hour. For more information contact:

QUESTIONS ABOUT FEEDING WILD BIRDS

Dave Cleary

Q: HOW CAN I TELL WHAT BIRD I'M SEEING IN MY YARD?

There are some species of birds that look very similar to one another. Many people find it difficult to tell House Sparrows from Black-Capped Chickadees, for example, or Pine Siskins from House Finches. To help recognize what you're seeing, you can use a bird identification book, such as Lone Pine's Birds of Alberta (this book is currently out of stock), or you can go online at allaboutbirds.org to look for birds on their bird guide. To identify lesser-known birds, practice answering the following questions, looking at a bird from the top down.

1. Silhouette - Look at the bird's overall size, shape and posture. Is it the size of something familiar like a sparrow, robin or crow? How does it sit, perch or fly?
2. Head Markings - Does the bird have a colourful or striped cap? Is there a stripe above or through the eye, or does it have an eye ring or "spectacles?" Look for cheek patches or a mustache. Is there a white throat patch?
3. Body Markings - What are the overall back, breast and belly colours? What's on the chest: a patch, spots, streaks or is it clear? Are the flanks (sides of body) clear or streaked? Is there a white or yellow rump patch?
4. Wing Markings - Are the wings a different color than the body? Are there wing bars or spots?
5. Tail Shape and Markings - Is the tail long or short compared to the body? Is it forked, squared, pointed or another shape? Are there certain colors or vertical or horizontal stripes?

For more tips on how to better identify birds, visit www.allaboutbirds.org.

Q: WHY AM I SEEING FEWER BIRDS AT MY FEEDER?

There are a variety of reasons why you may not currently have as many birds as you'd like to see in your yard.

- This can be caused by such things as predation events. This happens when a falcon or a hawk is in your neighbourhood. Feathers in your yard could be a sign that a hawk has had a meal at the expense of one of your birds. The other birds will stay away for a while until they're confident or hungry enough to return.
- An abundance of natural food due to good seed crops and/or low snow cover could keep them away because they are feeding elsewhere.
- Birds get about 75% of their food from natural sources and with some exceptions they travel around to different feeders and may just be somewhere else feeding for a while. A study in BC found that chickadees will travel a circuit of up to 25 km searching for food.
- Local habitat loss may also be a factor, both for the arrival of displaced birds at feeders, or for movement of birds to other locations for finding food. We had one customer report that a nearby 75 acre treed area was cut down for development. The next year the Robins arrived in his yard in abundance looking for somewhere to nest! Another customer in St. Albert said they saw the impact of a housing development which resulted in a decline in bird activity as well as a reduction in the number of species they saw.
- There may also have been a population reduction due to recent cold weather. Without enough food or shelter, some birds may succumb to the cold, usually on a cold winter's night. Putting bird seed and suet out in backyard feeders, supplying water, and providing cleaned out bird houses can help them survive cold winter nights.

Dave Cleary and Jan Chapman are owners of Wild Birds Unlimited at the corner of 122 St and 107 Ave on the northside in Edmonton. The mission of Wild Birds Unlimited is to bring people and nature together. See their website at www.wbu.com/edmonton or call them at 587-521-2473.

PVCL MEMBERSHIP HAS ITS BENEFITS

Join Your Community!

Have you purchased your community league membership this year? You may not know that memberships are valid from September 1st to August 31st similar to the school year. Although a community league membership is required for all community based programs, there are many benefits to having one even if your family doesn't utilize the programs or has outgrown them. These benefits such as community swims or skating are listed on the membership page. Memberships are also another way to support the community to provide other programming, general interest or activities as well as offer a sense of pride and belonging within the Parkview Area. To date, with the support of families and households living in the Parkview Community, we were able to provide a renovated hall space, new outdoor green space and our amazing brand new park! Buy your membership today!

As well as being able to purchase your membership at the various community programs like Tot Time, Soccer, etc. you may purchase your membership online at www.pvcl.ca and pay online through PayPal OR <http://efcl.org/membership> OR you may use the form listed below and follow the mail in instructions.

Once you have used one of the above options, your membership card will be mailed to you by the membership coordinator, Christy Wigger.

Any families that bought a Parkview membership through the EFCL website and require skate tags should contact Robin at membership@pvcl.ca. They can be mailed out, dropped off or picked up from Christy or can be made available at the rink during skate times upon proof of membership. Thank you!
