Finishing Touches on Park Revitalization

By Parkview Redevelopment Society

With grass turning to green, the time has come for the finishing touches on the Phase III of the park revitalization project. There will soon be activity in the social area when the fire pit installation gets underway. After a series of complications and delays, the PRS committee is just as anxious as all of you to see the finished work. We look forward to seeing the flames burning brightly at community events.

The committee continues to work on administrative duties and financial reporting. It is a significant job, and treasurer Val Bright has had a lot to manage as she also continues to participate in the ongoing hall renovations.

Another project we look forward to completing is a wall recognition plaque. Since the recognition rock was installed in September 2008, a number of donors contributed to Phase III or increased previous donations. A new outdoor wall plaque will acknowledge these donors. See page 4 for the list. If you were expecting to see your name on this list or have a change to the donor name, please contact Val at tvbright@shaw.ca by June 30, 2012.

The PRS committee continues to be grateful for all of the support shown by the people of this community. Many fabulous people volunteered talents and time, made financial contributions and participated in fundraising activities. They made this awesome project a success. You boosted our spirits and helped us in our journey. We are ready to reflect upon and appreciate the experience gained, the lessons learned, and the friendships forged.

Happy summer, Parkview. Get out and enjoy the park!

Nancy Davis (chair)*

Parkview Playschool

By Annissa Brodie-Dux
Playschool President

Located on the 2nd Floor of the Parkview Community League, 9135 - 146 Street

What a great 2011-2012 school year filled with fun and learning!

A big 'thank you' to teacher Merri-Ann and the board that volunteered their time and services: Michelle Pollock, Val Coenen, Gillian Culham, Lee Day, Carla Perrin, Christine Mallett, Tanya Trimble, Liz Herbert, Tanya Gilbody, Marnie Roch, Colleen Anderson, Heather Oga, Tami Lackey, Caroline Bowen.

This great not-for-profit community program has been running for almost 50 years to bring our children and families together in a fantastic cooperative setting. The value of this program extends beyond the playschool doors, just ask our current parents or those in the community who can say "I went to that playschool too!" It has been an integral part of the community by donating to such things as the building of the playground, a much valued place for both children and parents alike.

We are expecting a great 2012-2013 school year. Primarily providing programming to the Parkview community, the 3 and 4 year old classes welcomes all children to apply to our cooperative program. Our registration was held February 7, 2012 and limited spots are available. Please contact Christine Mallett at 780-454-4089 or hammerfamily@shaw.ca for more information.
