

Parkview wins the Sandcastle Competition

By Leah Visscher, Green Shack Leader 2013
lvissche@ualberta.ca

On July 31 the kids of Parkview banded together to create what would be quite the impressive sandcastle for the Sandcastle Competition, in which all of the Green Shack Program parks in Edmonton participated. The weather was hot and sunny as the kids dutifully kept on working to create a sandcastle that would level the competition. The kids that routinely partook in the Green Shack Program, offered at Parkview Park, were all in attendance as well as some children that joined in just for the fun of it! The sandcastle took a good 6 hours, at the end of which, the kids decided to include a dramatic twist and make costumes to go with the sandcastle in order to have an interactive element.

You see this castle was no ordinary castle, it took on a life of its own. The kids had first imagined and written a story about a made up character by the name of "Snookroogaloo." This character would become a regular name around our park throughout the rest of the summer. This made up fairy tale became the centerpiece around which the sandcastle was based. The kids made a miniature castle with little village houses, a volcano (that naturally would go off the moment the judge came to observe), a "lake" (that became our dipping pond later in the day), as well as hanging stars and planets. All of these parts came together in the famous "Snookroogaloo" story. The story that can be recounted by any regular child who participated in Green Shack this summer.

The day was coming to a close and yet the kids maintained high energy right until the end of the day when the "judge" came to see our creation. Green Shack Leader Leah stood by silently as the kids so flawlessly took the lead, escorting the judge around the castle and explaining all the different characters costumes. Green Shack Leader Leah was the maid, of course, in the character ensemble. The kids deserved a win for the positive and hard work that had been consistently shown throughout the day.

A win is just what the kids got! The day was one to be remembered and next year, who knows what the kids will come up with...possibly Snookroogaloo Part 2? We will see!

President's Message

It's hard to believe that another summer has come and gone and that winter has arrived. The last few months in particular, it seems, have passed rapidly and the long days of summer sun have fast become days of early darkness. Our daughter was ecstatic when the first snow of the year arrived and desperately wanted to make a snowman. Thank goodness for the optimism of children, as our initial reaction was a mixture of horror and denial. In spite of the colder weather, one thing that we can all look forward to is the upcoming holiday season; an opportunity to spend time with friends and family and to enjoy the company of those that we care most about.

We've had several great community events this fall. Our second annual pancake breakfast was held in September and hundreds of Parkview residents gathered for a wonderful morning of socializing and fun. In addition to enjoying pancakes, bouncy castles and many other activities, we were pleased to pay tribute to Valerie Bright through the dedication of a memorial bench built in her honor. On behalf of the executive, I'd like to offer my gratitude to all who helped with this event, and for Tony Bright and his family for allowing us to honor Val.

The month of October included a Halloween party for children, which was fun and well attended. Thanks to all those that contributed and helped plan such a great event! The first annual Parkview Halloween Ball for adults was also held in October. Tickets were sold out well in advance and if the feedback I've received is any indication, this event will continue to be hugely popular in the years to come. Those attending the party enjoyed food, drinks, music, dancing and the company of Parkview friends. Costumes at the event were impressive and it was great to see fellow neighbours dressed up in funny and interesting outfits. I want to offer a heartfelt thanks to Michelle Pollock, Carrie Nicholson, Tami Lackey and all those who contributed to the Halloween Ball, as it was a fantastic evening and one of the events that I'm sure will be highly anticipated in the future.

October also marked the Annual General Meeting of our community league, wherein board and executive positions were confirmed for the next year. I'm grateful for the opportunity to serve a second term as President and look forward to working with such a strong team for another twelve months. Thanks to all those who agreed to continue volunteering with us - that's what makes Parkview great!

A final significant event in the month of October was the municipal election that took place. Edmonton is now under the leadership of a new mayor and there are many fresh faces on city council. It's my hope that this new perspective and vision for our city will lead to great things in the future. I've known our new Ward One councilor, Andrew Knack, for several years through his involvement in community leagues in west Edmonton. I plan to continue communicating regularly with Andrew on matters that are important to Parkview and trust that he will be a strong representative on our behalf.

Wishing you and your family a wonderful Christmas and Happy New Year!

Warm regards,

John Corie

Bench celebrates inspirational volunteer and more

By Louise Clarke

September 21 marked Community League Day which turned out to be a fine fall day for a Parkview experience. It was the backdrop for another successful volunteer-run event, drawing in families of all ages to partake in the pancake breakfast and dedication of the Valerie Bright memorial bench.

The newly installed park bench honours Valerie Bright, who passed away in January 2013. Val was a long-time resident and volunteer in Parkview noted for her dedication and passion to build opportunities that bring people together. In addition to her many roles on the Parkview community league board; Val had a key role in fundraising and planning of the park redevelopment and hall renovations.

To acknowledge Valerie's volunteer service and accomplishments a park bench was commissioned by the Parkview Community League executive. It was placed near the fire pit overlooking the social area and the words chosen for the bronze plaque reflect her intrepid spirit. They read, "In memory of Valerie Bright. Passionate volunteer dedicated to nurturing community spirit and to building a place to bring friends together."

On behalf of the Parkview community league, we dedicate this bench in memory of Valerie Bright. We invite you to take a seat with your friends, your children, your spouse, or just your thoughts. Reflect, visit, but most of all enjoy what has been built for you.

Following a welcome from community league president John Corrie, vice president Brian Mulder presided over the commemoration. Brian shared a few anecdotes and highlighted Val's willingness to push up her sleeves. Tony Bright, Val's husband, spoke on behalf the Bright family and felt the bench placement was the perfect vista to appreciate the many new amenities built for the community. Val and Tony's children Taylor, Jonathan and Carly Ann were also present. Several close friends and family members stood by in support, including Val's sisters who were often recruited to help out at Parkview events.

Val was an impassioned volunteer, and most decidedly a community builder. Her enthusiasm and scope of vision inspired others to get involved and to participate in community activities. Beyond honouring Val's memory, the bench will be a steadfast reminder that committed people define our community and are keys to its success. Every one of us can make a difference.

Special Events Update

Parkview Special Event Community Functions have been steadily growing in popularity and variety. For the past number of years Community Special Events have been primarily supported through a Board Position. We think it is time to “spice things up a little” and try something new for our community events. Rather than having a small number of individuals hosting and organizing our annual events we would like to see Special Events being run through a much larger network of friends and neighbours.

This newly formed “Special Event Network” would see each event organized and hosted by different leaders and groups within the community. We think this is a fabulous way to introduce some new ideas to our events and allow community members the opportunity to get involved with very clear expectations and time commitments. Most importantly, it really is fun to gather a small group of friends together or lead the charge to throw a really great party or function for our fabulous community!

We currently have 10 Community Functions planned for the 2014 calendar year. A number of functions already have a Team Lead or Group in place. All of the functions vary in time and planning but are all supported by the Community League Board and past planners who are happy to provide information and insights learned from past events.

Parkview Tot Time - Come Join Us on Tuesdays!

By Jill Vihos, Tot Time Coordinator
totime@pvcl.ca

Are you a parent or caregiver with a child under six? Do you have free time on Tuesday mornings? If you said yes to both questions, please consider joining us at the Parkview Community Hall for Tot Time!

Tot Time is long-standing volunteer program bringing parents, caregivers and preschoolers together in the Parkview Community. This program is a wonderful opportunity for toddlers and preschoolers to meet peers in the community while engaging in fun and physical activity. Tot Time also offers parents and caregivers a chance to create connections with community members.

Each Tuesday, Tot Time runs from 0900-1100 at the Parkview Community Hall. Tot Time follows the school year schedule, with the Fall 2013 session ending on December 17 and the Winter session starting on January 7, 2014. To attend Tot Time, an active community membership is required for insurance purposes. Memberships can be from any community in the city.

The Tot Time program follows the same format each Tuesday. From 0900-1030, children engage in free play and craft construction. This is followed by snack time (please bring your own snack and drink) and song circle. Each week, we collect a small fee of $1.00 per child. This payment is allocated toward operational costs including craft supplies and toys, and seasonal parties.

Halloween Party Was a True Success!

We are delighted to report that the 2013 Community Halloween Party was a true success! This has become a signature event in the Parkview community and over 250 community members helped to make the event a memorable celebration this year. The Halloween party provides the Tot Time program with an opportunity to acknowledge the Parkview Community League for both donating the community hall on Tuesday mornings and funding this wonderful event each year. Children attending the party this year enjoyed a variety of activities including; cookie decorating, a craft station, tattoo application, and an enormous bouncy castle. A keepsake photo was taken of each family attending to provide a community memento to remember the day! We also offer our congratulations Katherine O'Neill who won the Pumpkin carving contest.

Tot Time extends a sincere thank you to all of the volunteers who made this party possible, including the Tot Time families who kindly donated food, and the students from Parkview Jr. High School who helped to operate and clean up after the event.

We also extend a special thank you to both Andy's IGA and Comfort Dental Centre for their very generous donations that made the party a true community success!

Parkview Pancake Breakfast

By Tamra Simons
simons1@shaw.ca

The Second Annual Parkview Community League Pancake Breakfast was once again a great success. Approximately 300 Parkview neighbours and friends turned out to enjoy hot off the griddle pancakes, sausages, fresh fruit, pastries and even a gluten free pancake and sausage zone!

The weather was absolutely perfect for relaxing and dining outside in the park. The kids were kept entertained with two Jumpy Things, Balloon Clowns, Carnival Games and the City of Edmonton Parks and Recreation "Fun Bag" including the ever popular giant parachute. It was also a great opportunity for residents to find out all about the fabulous activities being offered at the community hall.

The event would not have been possible without the support of all of the volunteers. Thank you so much for helping!

Questions I'm Asked About Feeding Birds

By Dave Cleary of Wild Birds Unlimited on the corner of 122 St and 107 Avenue, Edmonton

"If I feed birds in the fall and winter, won't that prevent them from migrating south?"

Birds have natural rhythms they follow that are triggered by hormones or the shortening or lengthening of the day during Fall and Spring. The urge to migrate is also dependent on food supplies. Finches will stay further north if there is a good cone seed crop in the boreal forest, as there is this year. Climate warming and the presence of backyard feeders have influenced some birds to move further north. But when the time comes, birds will migrate. Hummingbirds, for example, arrive and depart from Alberta at very predictable times each year in part using the energy we have provided them with at our feeders. But they leave on their own schedule.

"If I put water out for the birds in winter won't they freeze?"

Birds need water year round and will drink and bath in open water in a heated bird bath during the winter. This serves several purposes. First, they benefit from a dependable source of water in your yard as it saves them time and energy not having to search for natural sources. If they can't find open water they will eat snow, which requires energy to melt. Second, bathing helps keep their feathers clean and more effective in insulating them in our cold winters. On extremely cold winter nights, a bird can lose up to 10% of its body weight overnight to keep warm. In winter anything a bird can do to conserve energy helps them survive. It's also very entertaining to watch birds in a bird bath!

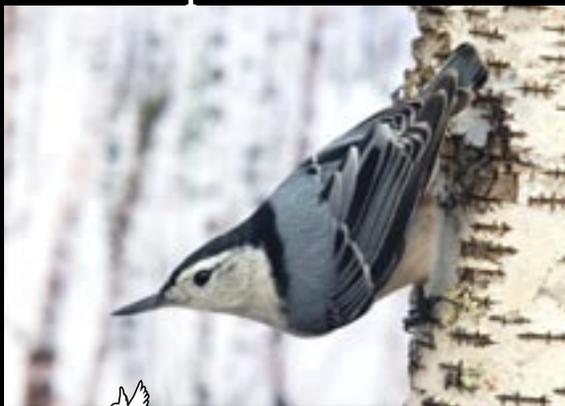

"Do birds actually need food that I put out in feeders?"

Birds get 75% or more of their food from natural sources, so they aren't dependent on us putting food out for them. However, there are times throughout the year when the food we offer can make a difference in their survival rate. This has been demonstrated in various studies. Like us, birds need food energy to survive. Sometimes during winter, they find it difficult to locate food due to inclement weather. During these times they can use up valuable energy searching for food, or use up a lot of energy staying warm overnight. If they cannot find enough food to make up for this energy use, they will not survive. By offering high energy and nutritious foods, we can help them survive during difficult times during the fall and winter. During the spring and summer, providing bird food helps the breeding success of parent birds, the survival of their young, the replacement of feathers during molting, and the build-up of energy reserves for fall migration.

Let's Do The Time Warp Again!

By Tami Lackey, Michelle Pollock & Carrie Nicholson-Candy
morecj@gmail.com

The fog hasn't even cleared on the Parkview's First Annual HALLOWEEN Ball and plans are already in the works for next year's bash. By all accounts the event was a huge success with over 200 of Parkview's residents and friends coming together for a night of fun and fright. The hall was transformed into a haunted mansion complete with a bust of Mrs. Ichabod, the ghost of Parkview hall, greeting party goers as they arrived. LED lights and spectacular centerpieces (created by Jodi Brown) set the stage.

One of the best parts of the evening was watching everyone arrive and reveal their costumes. From Lane Edward's jellyfish to Valerie Coenen's detailed "Day of the Dead" make up to Bobbi and Dennis Schmidt's Misfits punk rockers, party-goers really went all out with creativity. And not only did they look the part, they acted the part too – like Rick Leitch, who took Will Ferrell's "more cowbell" SNL character to new heights and the Hobals, who really got into the "Dog the Bounty Hunter" characters on the dancefloor. After feasting on delicious appetizers put together by our own Andrea Archimowitz and getting stellar bar service from Keven Lackey and Allan Davis, the crowd hit the dance floor. DJ Scott Parsons seemed to know exactly what song to play next to keep the groove going, because the floor remained packed for the duration of the evening. Partygoers only took a break when it was time to announce the winners of the costume contest. Best female costume went to Wendy Wilk as Dr. Hawkeye Pierce (complete with IV that served shooters to guests!), best male went to the original Brydon Edwards for his interpretation of a nightstand and best couple went to the inventive Tom and Louise Clark for their "Deer in Headlights" costumes.

Thank You Michelle, Carrie & Tami for fantastic evening!

Congratulation Wendy, Tom & Louise and Brydon for best costumes!

Everyone was ALL in with the crazy, creative, costumes and in spirit! It was the people who made the party GREAT!

The response to this event has been overwhelmingly positive and the support everyone has shown is greatly appreciated. We would like to thank the following Businesses who have generously supported this event:

- David Wilk and The Hospitality Group
- Mojo Photo Booth
- Roger's Sleep Shop
- Comfort Dental
- Acclaimed! Furnace cleaning, Heating & Cooling
- Second Cup on 149th street
- The Crestwood Oliv (just opened Nov. 1st in the Crestwood Shopping Centre)
- Scott Parsons DJ
- Allegro Restaurant
- Camus Wines
- Piccolinos Restaurant
- Bella Casa gifts
- Andy's IGA
- Christine Rankel Photography

And don't forget our wonderful volunteers - too many to mention but a special shout out to:

- Wendy and David Wilk for their constant assistance in getting this event off the ground.
- Andrea Archimowitz for the food,
- Jodi Brown for centerpieces,
- Tracey Kushniruk for her tireless assistance throughout the day,
- Kathren McMaster for signage, and;
- Kevin Lackey, Allan Davis for serving it up right at the bar!!

On a personal note, we'd like to thank all of you for coming out, dressing up, and really getting into the Halloween "Spirit".

ACCLAIMED! Furnace Cleaning, Heating & Cooling

Installations | Cleaning | Servicing

Besides the air filter, your furnace humidifier is the next most important thing to inspect and maintain. Prevent lizard skin, dry throat and disgruntled hardwood flooring with a flow through humidifier and annual maintenance.

Furnace humidifiers in Northern Alberta have a reputation as being unreliable, non-maintainable, dirty, crusty or gooey – THEY JUST DON'T WORK! That's a true statement of "most" humidifiers.

Drip type/flow through humidifiers work very well with minimal maintenance. They never have standing, stagnant water, preventing mold and bacteria from forming. Water is always moving through the evaporator pad, greatly reducing mineral deposits.

There is no such thing as a "MAINTENANCE FREE" humidifier - or anything else in life. Once a year - at most - the evaporator pad will need to be replaced. These are inexpensive and very easy to replace.

Make sure your humidifier turns on with the furnace fan (not the gas) and has hot water supplied to it with a regulated ball valve for optimal performance. With the right installation, you can have humid air, without excessive maintenance or worry about mold and bacteria forming.

P.S. – Changed your furnace filter lately?
